How did you hear about us? _____

Until your student has completed 5th grade, you must accompany them to the lesson and hand them off directly to the instructor. At the end of the lesson, your instructor will need to immediately hand off your student directly to you so that they can begin the next lesson on time.

Listening to your student's lesson is welcomed but not required.

Cost for private music lessons: $448/semester, payable in four installments of $112. Fees will be prorated for partial semesters.

Tuition must be paid before lessons are delivered. All payments are made online through RUMC's "Engage" system.

If you miss a music lesson without notifying your instructor at least 24 hours in advance, it will not be rescheduled.

The cost for art lessons varies depending on the event and cost of supplies.

For all lessons:

- Late arrival is not made up.
- Unused tuition is not refunded.

I understand and accept these policies.
